Like last year the riders enjoyed dry and mainly sunny conditions, and a mildly helpful wind direction.

A relatively small field, a number of whom were on their second of a four-climb weekend contested the climb of Hinton Hill. Winner by the substantial margin of 13.7 seconds was 22 year-old Gabe Dellar of Stolen Goat Race Team. Gabe's time was less than four seconds off Rob Gough's course record, set in 2011. Second overall was V40, Danny Lake of 360VRT. Second to equal-seventh were separated by just 4.7 seconds.

Fastest woman, as last year, was Emily Lockwood of Performance Cycles CC. First Juvenile was William Phillips of Avid Sport, first Junior was Akira Bees of Sodbury Cycle Sport. Fastest V50, as last year, was Steve Thomas of Bristol RC and finally, V60 winner was Richard Burt of Dursley RC.

Sadly no female competitors contested the under-18 or 40+ categories.

Thanks again to the following people for their essential contribution to the event:

- Bridget and Ian Boon for the timekeeping.
- The Marshals:
 - Jamie Britton - Start "pusher-offer" and IT guru.
 - Bernie Brown for support to Bridget
 - Paul Evans for the signage and other vital help!
 - Andy Short for marshalling the junction.
- The loan of their field, shelter and other vital assistance; Alex and Steve Huband.

We hope to see you all again next year.
