Closing comments:

As you may or not have been aware this was Jon and I's first attempt at organising a CTT event, I thank you all for your kind words, I passed on as many of these to the groups of helpers that I was blessed to have buzzing around me. Big well done to the riders, we don't seem to like flat, straight or wind free courses at VCLE, from what I saw and heard today's race was no exception, at least we didn't have hail like last year. I look forward to welcoming you all back in 2018.

Please note a black Nike Jacket was left in the HQ, please contact me directly to arrange a return

Kind Regards
Rob Wild
