Once again, the event was considerably over subscribed and I had to return nearly 30 entries, with just a small handful of riders from non-M&DTTA affiliated clubs making the cut. Just like last year, the day started off wet and cold, clearing by lunchtime. The temperature again increasing throughout the morning to produce a warm and pleasant afternoon.

Adam Robinson is this year's winner. His 52:36 pushing last year's winner Dave Crawley into second place by a mere four seconds. Mark Nulty also moved down a place this year, sharing 3rd place with Mark Turnbull with a very creditable 53:04. The going must have been tougher than last year, with the number of riders going under the hour down to 44 from last year's 65. For the second year in a row, the ladies prize was secured by a Manchester Tri rider, with Naomi Wright returning a 1:3:23.

Thanks to all the riders, as well as the officials, marshals and helpers, including the catering staff. Without the help of these volunteers, events like these simply could not be organised. A big thank you to Peter Brocklehurst who produced the results on his laptop and back projection screen. I'd like to offer special thanks to the time keepers, Graham Lawrence & Phil Heaton.

On a personal note, please can I ask all competitors to encourage club mates and family to support the other M&DTTA championship events, by providing much needed extra marshals and helpers and also registering with the district Marshals volunteer site. Details in latest CTT District newsletter and on the Manchester District CTT Facebook page.
