Team Icknield RC
Peter Richards, Matt Price, Martin Webb 6:41:43 £10 each

A pleasant windless morning turned into a virtual deluge as the early starters completed their first 25m lap and several riders opted to call it a day and headed for Tempsford Memorial Hall HQ to dry off. Some others turned around at intervening RAB's on their outward second lap; but the rain WAS heavy.

However, it didn't stop scratch man, Ashley Cox, Team Bottrill, returning in a new course record, 1:49:47, in his first stab at the distance, to claim top spot. The Clarke brothers, TMG Horizon Cycling Team, were second and third in a reversal of their usual showing with Luke recording 1:42:30 (5m30s improvement on LTS) and Ross some way off his best with 1:43:38.

The women's competition was very, very close as Karina Kaufmann, CC London, clocked 2:04:53, a mere 3 seconds ahead of Ingrid Salisbury, Mercedes AMG Petronas CC, 2:04:56.

Icknield RC lifted the team award virtue of their dogged determination to splash through to the end.

The event had first class support from my clubmates at FPCC, out on the road and at HQ. Once again, Gordon Hart, Icknield RC, played tunes on his watches in his usual efficient manner. A big thank you to all.

Regards, Vince Freeley
