Not many pbs today, but some excellent racing nevertheless on a very windy day. Congratulations to you all.

Some riders were a bit too eager to get going at the start and as a result had a second added on to the time initially recorded on the results' board.

In addition to thanking the many marshals who helped out on the day, many thanks to the timekeepers, Michael Keen and Frida Wezel; to Keith West – for the results' board and for patiently answering numerous emails from me of the “how do I do this?” kind as I navigated my way around the CTT online entry system; and for Liz and Mike Rooke for giving up their time to provide us all with teas, coffees and cakes and for raising – with the help of your generous donations – in excess of £100 for St Francis Hospice.

Look forward to seeing you (and, hopefully, many others) next year.
